

World Intellectual Property (World IP) Day Celebrations – April 26, 2025

Theme: IP and Music: Feel the beat of IP

Call for Innovations/Inventions/Creations Competition Award

From the pulse of a dance beat to the echo of a heartfelt lyric, music colors our world. Intellectual property rights are the unseen architects of this soundscape, enabling music to resonate across industries. They are the silent partners in creative collaborations, the drivers of economic harmony. Like the constant rhythm of a heartbeat, the presence of music and IP is a steady, pervasive force in our lives.

The theme for the 2025 World IP Day is IP and Music: Feel the beat of IP and celebrates how creativity and innovation backed by intellectual property rights keep a thriving music scene that benefits everyone, everywhere.

As part of the activities to mark the Day, the Kenya Industrial Property Institute (KIPI), Kenya Copyright Board (KECOBO) and Anti-Counterfeit Authority (ACA) intends to recognize, celebrate and award creators, inventors, innovators and hence this call for inventions, innovations and creations.
